SONGSHINE Class begins again in September 2014

SONGSHINE IS UNLOCKING SPEECH WITH SONG

Losing the ability to speak and communicate clearly can be devastating. But for voices affected by Parkinson's, stroke, other neurological disorders or simply aging, singing can bring energy and life back to speech. Strengthening speaking voices is the mission of SongShine Foundation, a nonprofit public charity that sponsors music-based voice therapy programs using classical singing exercises, speech and respiratory therapy methods, rhythmic movement, and group singing to enhance speech. SongShine's emphasis on singing also helps lift spirits; touch hearts release memories and create camaraderie as participants sing their way to stronger speech. It's FUN!

Classes will meet weekly Tuesday September 16, 2014 through December 16 2014 from 1:30 - 2:30 (1st week only come at 1:00 for registration). Location: Aldersgate United Methodist Church, 5130 Lincoln Avenue, Evansville, IN (From Green River Road go East). Classes are FREE. A Resource Kit (Textbook, CDs, Bookstand, Carry Bag) is $45. Call Colleen Martin (812) 598-8332 or register on our Facebook - SongShine Evansville or WWW. SongShineforParkinsons.org . Classes are taught by Certified SongShine Instructors.
