Manager's Corner

Greeting to everyone!

My name is Cindy Riggins. I moved to Newburgh in 1998 with my husband and 2 children (Ashley & Alyssa) when he was transferred here with Keller Crescent. My 2 daughters and now grown, married and have between them 5 grandchildren. My husband, John is currently working at Berry Global.

Hopefully, you will all get to meet him someday. I have worked in banking quite some time. My last position was with Bank of England from Little Rock, AR working remote from my home as a Corporate Senior Mortgage Processor. I have 2 dogs, one is a Golden Retriever named Scarlett and the other is a Maltipoo named Daisy.

You might get to meet Scarlett some day as she is being trained as a Therapy dog. I really look forward to meeting all of you and us getting to know each other. Looking forward to working with all of you and if you have any ideas for activities or fun things to do, please see me.

How beautiful a day can be, when kindness touches it!

The first Father's Day was celebrated in the United States in 1910. It all began in the state of Washington. A woman named Sonora Smart Dodd came up with the idea to honor and celebrate fathers while listening to a Mother's Day sermon at church in 1909. Inspired by the success of Mother's Day, she wanted to create an equivalent holiday for male parents. Dodd went to local churches, the YMCA, shopkeepers, and government officials to drum up support for her idea. Her efforts paid off, and Washington State celebrated the nation's first statewide Father's Day on June 19, 1910¹².
